Jekyll Island Celebrates Easter with a Festival in the Historic Landmark District

Join Jekyll Island for a Pooch Parade, Visits with the Easter Bunny, and Live Entertainment for the Whole Family

Jekyll Island, Ga. (March 24, 2006) –Jekyll Island offers the whole family an opportunity to celebrate Easter on April 15, 2006 in the Historic Landmark District. With activities for children, a pooch pet parade, live entertainment from Pam Blanchard and the Sunny Side Up Band out of Athens, Ga., families of all ages will enjoy spending time on the Island while celebrating this spring holiday.

Activities include pictures with the Easter Bunny, live entertainment, arts and crafts including candle art, sand art, egg decorating, T-shirt airbrushing, a Henna Art kids workshop provided by Home Depot, the Inaugural Jekyll Island Easter Pooch Parade, and a variety of food and beverages.

All events take place from 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. in the Jekyll Island Historic Landmark District along Pier Road. Most events are free; however the $3 entrance fee to the island still applies, as well as nominal food charges. The Jekyll Island Pooch Parade is at 1 p.m. and the registration fee is $10.
